Passing the forests we get to observe the amazing settlements of local people following their own unique styles of living life with traditional values. This place is also best for picturesque views, walking for some hours we reach Num and perched here for overnight. Overnight at tented camp, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

5. Trek to Sedua (1460m) Duration: 5 hrs

We continue along the trail descending steeply from Num through the corn fields of Lumbang. Below the village the trail drops very steeply through a jungle to a suspension bridge over the Arun River (660 m). From the bridge we climb steeply to a primitive tea shop, then through corn and buckwheat field. Moving along the rocky path and tiny terraces planted with corn and barley, we make a long, steep, rough climb to Sedua. Overnight at tented camp, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

6. Trek to Tashigaou (2070m) Duration: 6-7 hrs

We take our breakfast first and leave Sedua. We make a gradual climb high above the ridge surrounded by Kasuwa Khola and Ipuwa Khola on the eastern and western side to Gyang (1770m). During the climb, we past the school at Gyang. Now the trek is a gentle walk through terraced fields and forested areas to Hindrungma village, and on to Rupisa. En route, we cross meadows and several streams, and then climb to the Sherpa village of Tashi Gaon. Overnight at tented camp or trekking lodge, breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

7. Trek to Kauma (3470m) Duration: 6 hrs

We climb over the ridge and ascend through forests to a stream and onto a ridge where there is a small campsite. The trail levels out, and then climbs to a shepherd's hut called Chipla atop another ridge. We climb past two small streams, then switchback up the ridge in forests to a kharka at 2900 meters and up to a saddle and Unshisha, a tiny meadow at approx. 3300 meters. Here the trail joins the ridge that separates the Iswa and Kasuwa drainages. Overnight at tented camp or trekking lodge, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

8. Trek to Mumbuk (3570m) Duration: 6 hrs

We climb steeply through rhododendron forests to the top of the ridge, with a large mani wall adorned with prayer flags. From here, we get superb views of Chamlang, Peak 6 and Peak 7. Following the ridge for a while, we ascend a stone staircase. After a few false summits the trail veers left off the crest to a small lake. We then climb gently up a shallow rocky gully to the Kike La (4127 m). From the pass, we descend to another lake, and then ascend steeply through large boulders to the Tutu La. We continue descending about 150 meters into sparse rhododendron forests to a level area. Overnight at tented camp or trekking lodge, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

9. Trek to Nhe Kharka (3000m) Duration: 7 hrs

We descend a steep gully with a stream for about 500 meters. We then move left through fir forests, along the flank of the Barun Valley. Moving along ill-defined trail, we cross a 200-meter-long slide area, and then follow the river to a Kharka. Moving through forests of birch and scrub rhododendron, we reach Yangle Kharka. We Climb from Yangle Kharka, finally crossing to the north side of the Barun Khola to reach Nhe Kharka. Overnight at tented camp or trekking lodge, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

10. Trek to Sherson (4615m) Duration: 6 hrs

Beyond the Nhe Kharka, we follow the north bank of the Barun Khola for a while. We then cross a small wooden bridge before the river turns northward. The Barun Valley makes a huge S-shaped curve and the walls rise almost vertically 1500 to 2000 meters above the river, but the trail climbs gently as we approach Ripok Kharka. Still on the north side of the Barun, the trail turns westward and leaves the rhododendron forests for alpine tundra. There are excellent views of Pyramid Peak, Peak 4, Chamlang, Peak 3 and Peak 5, but Makalu is not yet visible. As we pass a ridge the glacier turns slightly north. Overnight at tented camp or trekking lodge, meals included: breakfast, lunch and dinner included.

11. Trek to Makalu Base camp (5000m) Duration: 5 hrs
