

Kali Gandaki river Rafting in Nepal - Itinerary

1. Day 01: Pokhara – Nayapool - Modikhola

We drive from Pokhara to Nayapool. The distance between Pokhara and Nayapool is about 60 km. The distance can be covered within about 3 hours' drive. We would go camping at Modi Khola. At around 7 am, we drive to Nayapool. Have lunch at Nayapool and go rafting. Overnight at Modikhola.

2. Day 02: Modikhola – Purti Ghat

The second day of our rafting starts from the campsite at Modi Khola below the village of Purti Ghat. While rafting in the river, we would also observe the calm and spectacular scenery including views of Mt. Annapurna I and Mt. Himchuli. The campsite is organized at Purti Ghat.

3. Day 03: Purti Ghat - Mirme to Pokhara

It is the last day of our kali Gandaki rafting. While returning, we penetrate into the holy village called Seti Beni on the way. Hence, the local people pay their visit to the confluence. Now, it is time for us to start our journey to back Pokhara. From Mirme, we take our bus to Pokhara. It is the distance of about 105km. which can be covered in a normal drive of 5 hours. One can either drive or fly back to Kathmandu or drive to the Chitwan National Park for Jungle safari activities or can go trekking in the Annapurna Region. Itinerary - Kali Gandaki river mostly starts and end in Pokhara, so if you are traveling from Kathmandu you need have more 2 days extra for the trip.
